Cynlas is a spacious home, conveniently situated in-between upper Bangor and the high street. The property comprises six bedrooms, a main bathroom and additional shower room. In addition, there is also a fully-fitted kitchen/diner, well suited to hosting and entertaining guests. Within the lower ground floor is a separate communal living area, facing the rear of the property. The property further benefits from a rear garden and private parking. Cynlas is ideally situated for easy access to Bangor train station, main bus station and several roads in and out of the city.
