PROPERTY OVERVIEW

This well presented semi-detached family home is situated in the popular village of Hook sat within a cul-de-sac and offers well balanced accommodation across two floors.

The ground floor welcomes an entrance porch leading into a bright living room with ample space, with stairs leading up to the first floor, a separate spacious dining room ideal for family meals or entertaining with a storage cupboard housing the combi boiler. This leads into the modern fitted kitchen providing ample storage and workspace.

To the first floor are three bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom with fitted wardrobes, two further bedrooms, and a family bathroom.

Externally, the property benefits from a spacious driveway which provides ample off-street parking to the front. To the rear is an enclosed garden featuring a patio seating area, a lawned garden, and a raised lawned section with established flower beds, providing an attractive and functional outdoor space for relaxation and entertaining.
