Quiet Close | No Through Traffic | Great Local Amenities

This well-positioned two-bedroom semi-detached family home is tucked away within a quiet close with no through traffic, offering a peaceful setting to come home to after a busy day.

Despite its tranquil position, you're never far from the essentials. Local schools are close by, Morrisons is just a stone's throw away, and there's convenient access to the M2 and Medway Towns, making this an excellent choice for both families and commuters.

Inside, the property offers a generously sized living area which flows through to the kitchen/diner, with doors providing access to the rear and side gardens. Upstairs, both bedrooms are well proportioned, with the main bedroom benefiting from built-in wardrobes, providing valuable additional storage.

A great opportunity for first-time buyers, young families or those looking for a well-connected home in a peaceful location.
