Upon entry you are welcomed by freshly sanded and varnished wooden floors in the reception area, naturally lit via the large bay window. Here you'll find space for both lounge and office furniture if required, with an abundance of built in floating shelves to house your most prized possessions. An under-stair storage cupboard also awaits, for bundling away your less attractive belongings.

Adjacent sits the double bedroom, with clean white walls that sing against wooden flooring and hosting more inbuilt shelving for extra storage. From here you may spy views out over your private garden to the rear.

Next door you'll find the nice sized kitchen and dining room with plenty of storage options, in warm reds and rich wood cabinetry surrounding granite effect worktops and fresh white tiling. A double set of French windows next to the dining area grants access to the garden,
