Immaculately presented and comprehensively improved, this superb detached family bungalow occupies a desirable cul-de-sac position in Little Urswick, backing onto open farmland and enjoying wonderful countryside views. Extended into the roof space, the property provides two additional bedrooms and a stylish shower room, including a master bedroom with a fabulous outlook. The ground floor offers two further double bedrooms, a modern family bathroom, excellent storage and a fabulous open-plan living space incorporating relaxing, dining and cooking zones. The dual-aspect kitchen overlooks the landscaped garden and has direct patio access, with attractive grey cabinetry, timber worktops and integrated appliances. Outside, the low-maintenance gardens feature artificial grass, paving and decorative stone, with a private driveway and garage completing this exceptional family home.
