Conveniently situated on Glanrafron Hill, 5 Fron Dirion is a spacious, modern four-bedroom home. This house comes fully furnished with all four bedrooms benefiting from double beds, large windows that flood the room with light and ample space to live in. One of these bedrooms is unique with a clear distinction between the inviting sleeping area and the open workspace. A bright kitchen is populated with plenty of storage for all tenants, as well as all the amenities a modern home needs including an oven, hob, fridge and freezer. These benefits, combined with all bills included in the rental cost, makes this property a great find for any student. Being on Glanrafron means easy access to many nearby University buildings as well as both of Bangor's main high streets and all businesses located there.
