The Property:

Welcome to this bright and inviting three-bedroom, one-bathroom semi-detached house. The open plan dining area connects seamlessly to a cosy living room through an archway, both spaces benefiting from plenty of natural light. The kitchen features integrated appliances, ample counter space, and a large window bringing in lots of natural light, there are two double bedrooms offering built-in storage and a third single bedroom. The hallway currently has a stairlift that enhances accessibility and links the main living areas, making the layout highly functional for everyday living.

Additional features include a single garage and offroad parking via a paved driveway, offering great convenience for families or those with multiple vehicles. The front garden is low maintenance, with gravel for easy upkeep, and to the rear a spacious patio, perfect for outdoor seating or entertaining, and a lawned garden. The dedicated home office space is bathed in natural light, making remote working a pleasure. With radiator heating throughout and a thoughtful layout, this home combines comfort, practicality, and flexibility for modern living.
