

Min Nant Butlers Hill, Llangollen, LL20 8HT

Price £385,000

A charming Grade II listed detached Welsh longhouse, believed to date back to the 18th century and reputed to have once served as a minister's residence, set within a beautifully proportioned walled garden adjoining the picturesque Cyflymen Brook. This characterful home retains a wealth of original features, including chamfered beams to the hall and dining room, along with a winding timber staircase leading to bedroom three. The inviting lounge showcases exposed stonework and a feature inset wood-burning stove, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The ground floor also offers a kitchen, utility room, and a 4th bedroom with adjoining office/dressing room — ideal for flexible living arrangements. To the first floor, the spacious master bedroom benefits from an en-suite shower room, complemented by a stylish family bathroom and two further well-proportioned bedrooms. Externally, the sunny aspect garden provides several patio areas perfect for outdoor entertaining, surrounded by mature trees and shrubs, a lawned garden, and direct access to the brook. To the front, a generous parking area offers ample space for up to four vehicles. A truly delightful period home offering charm, history, and idyllic surroundings.
