The property forms part of the sought-after Bluebridge Court development, accessed via secure gated entry, and has been thoughtfully refurbished in recent years to a very high standard. Offered with no onward chain, the result is a home that feels both contemporary and welcoming, with carefully considered finishes throughout.

Accessed via its own private entrance, the apartment opens into a well-proportioned sitting room which provides a comfortable space to relax. The adjoining kitchen has been fitted with modern units and work surfaces, offering a practical yet stylish space for everyday cooking.

The bedroom sits to the rear of the property and is generous in scale, comfortably accommodating a double bed along with additional furniture and storage. A well-appointed bathroom completes the internal accommodation.

One of the particularly appealing features of this apartment is the private courtyard, providing a pleasant outdoor space rarely found with properties of this type so close to the city centre.

The apartment has most recently been operated as a successful holiday let and is well suited to those seeking an established investment or a flexible city base. Supporting its strong investment credentials, the business has demonstrated consistent performance with average occupancy levels of around 73%. Gross income has reached £28,400 in its strongest year, reflecting sustained demand for high-quality accommodation within easy walking distance of York's historic city centre.

Bluebridge Court sits within approximately a quarter of a mile of York's historic city walls, placing the city centre within easy walking distance. The surrounding area offers a wide range of amenities including independent shops, cafés, restaurants and riverside walks, while York railway station and excellent transport links are also easily accessible.
