Situation

Malmesbury is a historic market town renowned for its rich heritage, attractive architecture and picturesque setting on a hilltop surrounded by the River Avon. Often described as England's oldest borough, the town offers a charming blend of historic character and modern amenities, making it one of Wiltshire's most sought-after locations.

The town provides an excellent range of facilities, including independent shops, cafés, restaurants, supermarkets, schools, healthcare services and leisure amenities, together with a thriving weekly market and a strong community atmosphere. At its heart stands the magnificent Malmesbury Abbey, a landmark dating back over 1,000 years and one of the town's most notable attractions.

Malmesbury enjoys excellent transport links, with convenient access to the A429, A350 and M4 motorway via Junction 17, providing easy connections to Swindon, Chippenham, Cirencester, Bath and Bristol. Mainline railway services are available from nearby Chippenham and Kemble, offering regular connections to London Paddington, Bristol and South Wales.

The surrounding area is renowned for its beautiful countryside, with the Cotswolds National Landscape lying just to the north and a wealth of walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits available nearby. The town's combination of historic charm, excellent amenities, strong transport links and attractive setting continues to make Malmesbury a highly desirable location for owner-occupiers, investors and developers alike.
