Farnley Warren

A substantial and beautifully presented Suffolk home offering versatile family living, two superb annexes, generous landscaped gardens and extensive parking, all set in the heart of Badwell Ash with excellent local amenities and easy access to nearby towns.

Step Inside

Set discreetly behind mature gardens and approached via its own private driveway, Farnley Warren reveals itself as a substantial and beautifully arranged home of exceptional versatility. A welcoming entrance porch opens into the broad reception hallway, from which the principal living spaces unfold with a sense of light, comfort and coherence. The dual-aspect lounge forms an early highlight, its wood-burning stove set within a handsome brick fireplace, complemented by warm flooring and views to the front, rear and side. Double doors lead naturally into the well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room, where Quartz work surfaces, a central island, and plentiful storage create an inviting heart to the home. Windows to both elevations flood the space with light, while a side hallway offers further access and a second cloakroom.

For more formal occasions, the elegant dining room opens directly onto the rear terrace through French doors, while a remarkable additional reception room—originally a full-size games room—provides an exceptional space for entertaining, a studio, or a large family room. Its engineered oak flooring, triple aspect windows and French doors give the room both scale and charm. A well-appointed utility room completes the ground floor of the main residence, offering excellent storage and direct access to the terraces outside.

Upstairs, the first floor unfolds across a generous landing. The principal bedroom enjoys double-aspect windows, fitted wardrobes, and an en-suite shower room with rain shower. Two further double bedrooms offer fitted storage and pleasant views, one benefitting from its own en-suite, while the family bathroom provides a bath with overhead shower. A versatile landing room, eaves storage and a side landing emphasise the sense of space and adaptability throughout.

This significant home also incorporates two superb annexes. The attached annexe, arranged over two floors, provides an excellent self-contained environment with its own entrance, cloakroom, a modern kitchen/dining area, and a bright sitting room. Upstairs, a well-proportioned bedroom leads to an attractive dressing area and bathroom, with an internal connecting door offering seamless integration with the main residence when desired. A separate detached single-storey annexe bungalow provides stylish open-plan living with a modern kitchen, two bedrooms and a contemporary shower room—ideal for visiting family, independent living or a valuable income opportunity via private or holiday letting.

Step Outside

The house is approached through an electric wrought-iron gate that opens onto an expansive resin-finished driveway offering generous parking. This leads to a beautifully crafted double bay cart lodge, accompanied by two workshop spaces and an additional store.

The gardens are an exceptional feature of Farnley Warren. To the front, mature planting and established trees provide privacy and seasonal colour. At the side, a paved terrace serves the attached annexe, while the detached bungalow annexe enjoys its own enclosed garden framed by a picket fence.

The rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped to create a series of inviting outdoor spaces, including broad paved terraces ideal for dining, lawns, raised beds filled with shrubs and perennials, and a charming pergola as well as a covered barbecue area—perfect for summer entertaining. A substantial timber store/workshop further enhances the property's practicality.
