Beacon Hill Bungalow, Beacon Hill Lane

Terrington St Clement, King's Lynn PE34 4LT

£299,995

Bedrooms: 3 | Bathrooms: 1 | Receptions: 1

Wake up every day, open the curtains and breathe in the stunning Norfolk countryside.

Surrounded by open fields, this generously proportioned, three bedroom, detached bungalow offers an abundance of peace and tranquility and the perfect setting for recharging your batteries. With far reaching, open field views, nearly everywhere you look, this home lends itself to a calming lifestyle, it's bright and airy accommodation has been coupled with a generous plot, oil fired central heating and off-road parking.

Inside, every room offers a different aspect to look out onto, the bay fronted living room is flooded with natural light, a versatile room, ideal for catching up with friends over a cup of tea or relaxing at the end of the day. For those that love to socialise, the kitchen/dining room is the perfect setting. There's plenty of room for a dining table, so you can have everyone over to tuck in to your famous home cooking. The three well proportioned bedrooms are split into two excellent doubles and a comfortable single, all offering you the opportunity to enjoy more of the field views from the moment you open your curtains in the morning. Aside from the welcoming hallway, the final piece of accommodation is the modern family bathroom.

One of the current owners favourite spots, is sat in a chair on the patio terrace. The best place to relax, enjoy the sun and make the most of the big skies we enjoy here in Norfolk, whether you're relaxing on your own or you're spending time with friends and family outside, we guarantee this will become one of your favourite spots too. The bungalow also benefits from a large lawned garden, a safe secure space for pets and little ones to play. Outside, you'll also find a summerhouse (currently used as a home office) and a large timber workshop/shed, both these outbuildings boast power.
