Hungerford, Berkshire, RG17 0LB

Guide £645,000

A substantial semi detached house that has been extended to create an extremely comfortable family home, situated in a favoured residential area of the town.

Description

The accommodation includes a hall from which the stairs lead, a nicely fitted cloakroom and a sitting room with a fireplace and wood burning stove. There is also a dining room with doors to the garden. The open plan kitchen/family room is a fabulous space for the whole family to enjoy, fitted with a distinctive range of units, a large island unit, limestone style flooring and bifold doors out onto the garden. There is also a useful utility room. On the first floor the main bedroom has an en suite shower room, together with a walk in wardrobe. The second bedroom also has an en suite shower room and fitted wardrobes. The remaining two bedrooms are served by the family bathroom and this includes a shower. Outside there is a wide corner plot with a driveway and detached garage to the side. The rear garden is fully enclosed, with generous paved terrace, lawn, mature trees and shrubs. A viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate the overall proportions of the outstanding property.

Hungerford

The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined approximately 3 miles to the north and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country (Reading to Taunton line).

Directions

From our office, turn left up the High Street, and right at the mini roundabout onto Atherton Road. Then turn left onto Church Way, and then take the second right into Homefield Way. Turn left into Sanden Close, and No.16 will be found along on the right hand side.
