About the property

GUIDE PRICE £300,000 - £325,000

Beautifully presented and rich in period character, this attractive two-bedroom garden apartment occupies the ground floor of an elegant period property in a highly sought-after central Hove location.

Set back from the road behind a charming front garden, the apartment benefits from its own private entrance, opening into a calm and welcoming hallway. Two well-proportioned bedrooms are positioned towards the front and middle of the property, both retaining attractive period features including fireplaces and decorative ceiling mouldings. The front bedroom is particularly impressive, with a broad bay window flooding the room with natural light, while the second bedroom enjoys French doors opening directly onto the secluded rear patio garden.

The wide central hallway leads through to the kitchen and reception room, peacefully positioned to the rear. This sociable living space is complemented by a well-appointed kitchen offering generous worktop space, ample storage and windows overlooking the garden. A bright and well-proportioned bathroom completes the accommodation.

The apartment has been thoughtfully presented throughout, with a considered interior that complements the property's original architectural details while maintaining a fresh, contemporary feel.

Sackville Road is ideally positioned for the many independent cafés, bakeries, delis, bars and shops of Church Road and Poets Corner, as well as a wide range of everyday amenities. Hove seafront is within easy walking distance, while Hove Station, well-regarded local schools and excellent transport connections are all close at hand.
