A particular feature of the property is the generous predominantly south-facing front garden, providing an attractive outdoor space or potential to extend subject to the necessary permissions and consents. Further outside, there is a private driveway providing off-road parking together with an attached garage.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hallway, spacious lounge/diner with living-flame gas fire, fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Helston is a popular market town and is widely regarded as the gateway to the beautiful Lizard Peninsula, offering easy access to some of Cornwall's most spectacular coastline, sandy beaches and secluded coves.

The town itself provides a good range of amenities, including national retailers, health centres, a cinema and leisure centre with indoor swimming pool. There is also a selection of well-regarded primary schools, together with a secondary school and sixth form. The university campus at Penryn is approximately 12 miles away.
