Whitegates, Sibbaldbie

Lockerbie, DG11 2JY

Offers Over £270,000

Whitegates presents a truly exceptional opportunity for buyers seeking a deceptively spacious, versatile and distinctive home, beautifully positioned within the Dumfriesshire countryside. Meticulously maintained and upgraded by the current owners, the property is finished to a high standard throughout. Each of the two reception spaces is exceptionally well proportioned, including an inviting formal living room with a multi-fuel stove and a substantial dining room enjoying a delightful garden outlook. A generous fitted kitchen complements the living accommodation, while three bedrooms, a family bathroom and a separate shower room provide excellent flexibility. The main bedroom is conveniently located on the ground floor, making the property equally suitable for family living, retirement or those seeking long-term practicality. Situated within the peaceful rural community of Sibbaldbie, approximately four miles north of Lockerbie, the property enjoys a wonderfully private setting while remaining within easy reach of local amenities and transport links. The beautifully established gardens surround the home, with the substantial rear garden enjoying an elevated outlook and featuring a greenhouse, summerhouse and pond. Additional gardens to the front and side provide further space for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying the surrounding countryside. Further benefits include a double-gated driveway providing off-road parking, a large attached garage and solar PV panels, helping to reduce ongoing running costs. Combining generous accommodation, excellent presentation, magnificent gardens and an idyllic semi-rural setting, Whitegates offers a genuinely unique lifestyle opportunity.
