Location

Herne Bay is a delightful up and coming seaside town, full of traditional seaside magic. There is over 2 miles of seafront offering some superb walks and attractions. There are excellent road links onto the A299 and M2 towards London and there is a mainline train station. There are some well performing infant, junior and secondary schools so families are always attracted to the town. There are many amenities and attractions ranging from the 12th century Roman fort at Reculver, the sea front gardens, cafes, wine bars, cinema and leisure centre. Herne Bay
