The property is within walking distance to schooling for all ages and is close to some splendid country and riverside walks.

The property dates to the mid 1930s and has been a very much loved and enjoyed home to our sellers for the last nineteen years. During this time it has been very well maintained and benefits from insulated floors at ground level, water softener, gas fired central heating via radiators and double glazing with an attractive cottage style pane glass bar.

The bungalow enjoys an easy to use layout with many of the well proportioned rooms providing flexible usage. The conservatory has sufficient space for a dining table, which would allow for a further double bedroom on the ground floor, if required. This lovely home will certainly go a long way to satisfy the needs of many potential buyers and provides comfortable accommodation with the option to change to one's own taste and design, as and when required.

A viewing is a must to truly appreciate this home and what it has to offer and an early viewing is urged to avoid missing out on the chance to be the next owner.

The Property

Inside

A part-glazed uPVC front door with a matching side panel opens into a useful entrance porch, with tiled flooring, coat hooks and windows to either side. From here, a further uPVC door leads into the entrance hall, where there is a high-level cupboard housing the electrics and natural panelled doors opening to the principal ground-floor rooms. The dining room enjoys a pleasant double aspect with windows to the front and side, while a feature fireplace with timber surround adds character and fitted shelving sits to one side of the chimney breast. The sitting room overlooks the driveway to the side and provides a comfortable main living space, with a coved ceiling, television connection and stairs rising to the first floor, with useful cupboard storage beneath. The kitchen has two windows overlooking the side of the property and is fitted with a good range of wood-grain effect floor and wall cupboards, drawers, open shelving, eye-level units and a plate rack. There is plenty of worktop space incorporating a one-and-a-half bowl sink and drainer, together with space for a fridge/freezer, an integrated freezer and plumbing for both a washing machine and dishwasher. A range-style gas cooker with six burners and two ovens completes the room, while double doors lead through to the conservatory. Of uPVC construction over a low wall, the conservatory enjoys windows to the side and rear and double doors opening directly onto the garden. With tiled flooring and a pleasant outlook, it provides a lovely additional living space and also houses the gas-fired central heating boiler. The ground floor also offers two double bedrooms, giving the property excellent flexibility for family life, visiting guests or those looking for accommodation mainly on one level. Both are well proportioned, with one enjoying built-in wardrobes and its own en-suite shower room, fitted with a shower cubicle, pedestal wash hand basin, WC and storage cupboards.

Stairs rise to the first floor, where the landing has part wood-panelled walls, access to roof space. A further double bedroom can be found here, with built-in wardrobe storage and access to the airing cupboard. The family bathroom will be found at the bottom of the staircase and is fitted with a white suite comprising a panelled bath with shower over, pedestal wash hand basin and WC.

Outside

Garage and Parking

The property is approached from the road onto a gravelled driveway providing parking for at least four cars, with additional space suitable for a boat or caravan. The former garage is currently divided to create two very useful areas. To the front is a store with an up-and-over door, measuring approximately 1.93m x 3.30m (6'4" x 10'10"), while to the rear is a workshop, approximately 3.63m x 3.30m (11'11" x 10'10"), with a door opening to the side, lighting and power. The arrangement could potentially be altered to reinstate a garage if preferred. There is also an external power hook-up point suitable for a caravan or similar use.

Garden

The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn and incorporates gravelled and paved seating area.

Established shrub and flower beds provide colour and interest, while a stepping-stone pathway leads across the lawn to a side passage with external tap. The garden is nicely proportioned and offers a good degree of privacy.
