DESCRIPTION

Built in the latter part of the Victorian era this spacious end of terrace house forms part of a highly favoured locality adjacent to the town centre of Altrincham with its highly popular Market Hall which contains a variety of establishments including small independent retailers and informal dining options. The Metrolink station provides a commuter service into Manchester and the property also lies within the catchment area of highly regarded primary and secondary schools. In addition, Stamford Park is just a couple of hundred yards distance to the east with recreational areas including a children's playground and tennis courts.

Typical of the era it is difficult to appreciate from the exterior the extent of the accommodation within and much of the original character remains with tall ceilings, decorative mouldings and panelled doors complemented by modern enhancements such as PVCu double glazing and gas fired central heating.

The well presented accommodation is approached beyond a walled courtyard and recessed porch with decorative brick archway and sympathetically designed composite front door. The entrance hall leads onto an impressive dining room with the focal point of a wood burning stove set upon a stone hearth and French windows opening onto the paved rear terrace which is ideal for entertaining during the summer months. Positioned at the front is an elegant sitting room with bespoke fitted units and natural wood shelving flanking both sides of the chimney breast and there is provision for a wall mounted flatscreen television. The kitchen is fitted with in-frame Shaker style units complemented by natural wood work-surfaces to include a matching breakfast bar, a range of integrated appliances and traditional decorative floor tiling. Completing the ground floor is a modern cloakroom/WC.

At first floor level there are two double bedrooms both with the benefit of fitted wardrobes and a stunning refitted bathroom/WC complete with roll-top bath and separate walk-in shower. Furthermore the loft space has been converted to create an additional double bedroom with full width sliding doors to substantial eaves storage and potential to create an internal wardrobe solution.

Externally the beautifully landscaped rear gardens are paved for ease of maintenance, alongside raised flowerbeds and a variety of surrounding mature trees to provide screening and establish a high degree of privacy. Importantly with a southerly aspect to enjoy the sunshine throughout the day.
