DESCRIPTION

Offered to the market chain free, 31 Middle Street is an elegant Georgian mid-terrace home, ideally positioned in the sought-after Old Stroud area, just a short walk from the town centre. Rich in character, the property combines period charm with practical living space, offering impressive proportions and a welcoming atmosphere throughout.

The ground floor opens into a spacious entrance hall, immediately showcasing the home's high ceilings and sense of grandeur. To the front, a well-proportioned sitting room is filled with natural light from a classic sash window. To the rear, a generous kitchen/dining room provides an ideal space for both everyday living and entertaining, complete with a feature fireplace and ample storage. A convenient downstairs WC and under-stairs cupboard add further practicality.

A striking staircase leads to the first floor, where a bright and airy landing gives access to a superb principal bedroom positioned to the front, a further double bedroom overlooking the rear, and a well-appointed family bathroom.

The second floor continues to impress, offering two additional double bedrooms, served by a second family bathroom, ideal for growing families or guests.

Externally, the property benefits from a thoughtfully landscaped rear garden, designed for ease of maintenance. Arranged over attractive terraced levels, it features a variety of flowers and mature shrubs, creating a charming outdoor retreat. French doors from the kitchen/diner provide seamless access. To the rear of the garden, off-street parking is available, accessed via Chapel Street.

A wonderful opportunity to acquire a characterful home in a highly desirable location.

DIRECTIONS

LOCATION

Middle Street is located in 'Old Stroud', where the properties comprise a fascinating mixture of medieval cottages juxtaposed with homes from the Georgian and Victorian eras, all flanking a narrow street, which sees minimal passing traffic, despite being within a few minutes from the centre of the town. In some ways this striking contrast replicates the nature of Stroud itself. As a centre for the cloth trade which made the Cotswolds so prosperous in the 18th century, Stroud has always had its own identity which continues to this day. It is now a regional centre for the arts, film, drama and music as well as textile design - continuing its rich heritage of creativity. Stroud is strategically located with excellent road and rail links in the vicinity.

On the main line from the Cotswolds up to London (Paddington) scheduled from 95 minutes, it is also little more than 15 minutes off Junction 13 of the M5 and within about 2 hours of London by road. The town has three major supermarkets (Waitrose, Sainsbury's and Tesco) as well as an award winning Farmers' Market every Saturday. It is surrounded by lovely countryside offering superb walks and there is an excellent choice of places to eat out locally while Stroud also retains a good selection of independent shops and has both boys' and girls' grammar schools.

Motorway M5 J13 Stroud - 5 miles, Motorway M4 J15 Swindon - 31 miles, Stroud Railway Station 0.5 mile, Cirencester (central) - 13 miles, Cheltenham (central) - 14 miles, Bristol Airport - 40 miles, Bristol Temple Meads - 32 miles. Distances are approximate.
