Making Memories Together

It's a home where you can make precious memories, celebrating birthdays, anniversaries, Christmases and more with extended family. It works so well at every stage of life and rises to every occasion. The main sitting room is a lovely quiet space in which to relax and there's a separate study or snug that would be perfect for anyone working from home. A family room off the kitchen lends itself to use as a playroom, so you can easily keep an eye on little ones. Double doors lead to the magnificent open plan living/dining room with a multi-fuel burner, windows on three sides and doors to the garden beyond. The elegant classic kitchen, complete with granite worktops and travertine flooring, is perfect for anyone who loves cooking for friends and family and chatting with them around the central island. Upstairs, all four of the bedrooms are doubles, the master benefiting from an en-suite shower room and the other bedrooms sharing a stylish family bathroom with walk-in shower. Three of the bedrooms have storage too.

You have plenty of parking at the front of the house, plus a single garage. To the rear, the beautiful garden is easy to care for and to keep neat, so you can enjoy it without having to be tending to it all the time. It's securely enclosed and safe for little ones, or for those who have dogs. There's also a useful garden studio. Head out onto The Boulevard and you can go for a walk around the green or hop on one of the regular buses into the city centre. A school bus takes primary aged children to the local school and back, while the highly regarded local high school is around a mile and a half away. You have supermarkets, takeaways, a Post Office, pubs, restaurants and more within easy reach in one direction, with the Broads and open countryside in the other. Proximity to the city and to the Broadland Northway make this a very accessible location.
