

COUNTRY
HOLMES

43 Post Street, Padfield

£225,000

🛏️ 2 🚿 1 🚗 1

- Beautifully presented two-bedroom stone cottage
- Sought-after semi-rural location in Padfield
- Walking distance to Hadfield train station and town centre
- Lovingly maintained by current owners for over 20 years
- Characterful lounge with high ceilings and multi-fuel burner
- Delightful rear cottage garden with seating areas
- Close to local amenities, good schools, and countryside walks
- Excellent commuter links to Manchester and beyond

A beautifully presented two-bedroom stone cottage set in a charming semi-rural location, within easy walking distance of Hadfield's amenities and train station. Lovingly maintained for over 20 years, the property combines character features with stylish interiors, including a cosy lounge with multi-fuel burner and a well-equipped kitchen diner overlooking the garden. Upstairs offers two well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern bathroom. Externally, there are attractive front and rear cottage gardens, perfect for relaxing. Located in the sought-after village of Padfield, close to Glossop and the Peak District, the home offers an excellent balance of countryside living and commuter convenience.

