About the Property

Located within the sought after Keswick Hall development, this one bedroom first floor apartment offers practical and comfortable accommodation in a quiet countryside setting, while remaining within easy reach of Norwich city centre.

The apartment comprises an entrance hall with two storage cupboards, a double bedroom with space for wardrobes, a shower room, and a living room opening to a fitted kitchen. High ceilings enhance the sense of space throughout. Additional benefits include large double glazed windows throughout and Economy 7 heating.

With approximately 120 years remaining on the lease, the apartment is suitable for mortgage lending and represents a practical option for owner occupiers or investors.

The Outside

The property forms part of a period building set within the quiet and historic surroundings of Keswick Hall. The development features well-maintained communal grounds and woodland walks. Residents have access to on-site facilities including tennis courts, a heated outdoor swimming pool, and ample communal parking, providing opportunities for leisure and recreation within a peaceful setting.

Location Overview

Keswick Hall offers the calm of a countryside estate while remaining only a short drive from Norwich. Eaton's shops, schools and local amenities are approximately 3 miles away, with convenient access to the A140, combining rural tranquillity with everyday convenience.
