1 Bedroom Ground Floor Flat, Reading Town Centre

Positioned in the heart of Reading town centre, this well-presented ground floor one-bedroom apartment offers modern living with unbeatable convenience. With shops, cafés, transport links, and major bus routes just moments away, it's an ideal choice for buyers seeking an easy commute and a vibrant urban lifestyle.

Inside, the property features a bright living area, a contemporary fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, a double bedroom, and a modern bathroom. The layout is practical and welcoming, with neutral décor and good natural light throughout. The flat also benefits from a long lease of 122 years and is set within a well-maintained building.

Currently tenanted, the property generates a strong rental income of £1,250 pcm (self-managed by the seller). It can be sold with the tenant in situ for investors, or with vacant possession from May 2026, making it equally appealing to first-time buyers planning ahead.
