Located in the heart of Chelsea, just moments from South Kensington, this well-proportioned third-floor flat is set within a quiet, modern, portered building with lift access. The spacious reception room features floor-to-ceiling windows, enhancing the sense of light and openness. Ideally positioned between South Kensington and Sloane Square underground stations (Piccadilly, District and Circle lines), the property offers easy access to the wide array of shops, restaurants, and amenities in both areas.

Great for students going to Imperial College as its just a short walk away.
