PROPERTY SUMMARY

Shaw & Co present this impressive four-bedroom detached bungalow situated on Invicta Close in Feltham, presented in immaculate condition and offering spacious, versatile accommodation throughout. Having been substantially extended to the rear and side, this superb property provides generous living space, ideal for families seeking both comfort and flexibility.

The accommodation comprises four well-proportioned double bedrooms, two of which benefit from en-suite facilities, alongside a family bathroom and an extended kitchen. The property has been maintained to an excellent standard throughout, allowing the new owners to move straight in and enjoy everything on offer.

Externally, the property benefits from gated access and off-street parking to the front, while the large rear garden provides excellent outdoor space for relaxation and entertaining. A particular highlight is the substantial double-sized rear annexe, complete with its own en-suite, offering excellent versatility for extended family, guests or those requiring additional independent living space.

Combining generous accommodation, immaculate presentation and a substantial annexe, this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a unique and spacious detached home in Feltham.
