Reassuringly familiar, refreshingly new

Tucked away in the heart of Newport, this is a beautifully renovated detached family home that blends period charm; storm porch, stained-glass door, bay windows and ceiling roses with modern comfort, including an air source heat pump, a smart new kitchen and bathroom, and fresh flooring and décor throughout. Step outside and you'll find the real surprise: an incredibly mature, colour-packed garden that feels worlds away from town-centre life. There's also off-road parking however, the drive is on the narrower side but could be sensibly widened with the right builder advice.
