ALVESTON AND RUDGEWAY Situated just off the A38, Alveston and Rudgeway have a population of around 3000. Developed around the old village, mainly in the 1960's and 1970's, Alveston has a small arcade of shops including an award winning butcher, a greengrocer, pharmacy and general store, as well as an 8 til late convenience store located elsewhere in the village and a Post Office. There are two pubs in Alveston and Rudgeway and the village also has a primary school and a secondary school, church and village hall. THORNBURY With an estimated population of approximately 15,000, Thornbury has everything you might hope for in a town of this size. A pretty High Street has a variety of shops combining national names and local independent stores, and these extend through into a small shopping arcade. There are two supermarkets, a library, The Mundy Playing fields, golf course, tennis courts and a large leisure centre with swimming and diving pools. Schooling is provided by five primary schools and Thornbury Castle School provides secondary education. There are also two schools specifically for those children with special needs. Thornbury also benefits from a number of great eateries, from pubs to cafes and cafes to fine dining restaurants.
