An incredibly well presented and modern 3 bedroom semi detached property on Linnet Way, Sleaford.

If you're looking for something you can move straight into, in a popular area, this one is well worth a look.

The ground floor offers a small entrance hall leading into a good sized living room, which opens through to the dining area. The kitchen is a standout part of the home. It's modern, well laid out and has plenty of natural light.

From the kitchen, there's access out to the rear garden, which is south facing and a good size. There's a recently installed Indian sandstone patio, a shed to the rear and side access.

Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms, a single bedroom and a modern family bathroom.

A solid option for first time buyers, small families or anyone looking for a straightforward move.
