A well-presented three-bedroom townhouse, ideally located just a short walk from the town centre. This charming home forms part of a unique conversion of a former public house, blending character with modern living. The ground floor offers a welcoming entrance hall, a convenient cloakroom with W.C., and a bright garden room with doors opening onto a private, secluded courtyard garden. There is also a formal sitting room featuring an attractive fireplace, along with a well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room. Upstairs, the property offers a spacious master bedroom with a feature fireplace and fitted wardrobes, a further double bedroom, and a well-proportioned single bedroom. The family bathroom is fitted with both a separate shower and a bath, completing the accommodation. Residents' permit parking is available, and the property is being offered for sale with the added benefit of no onward chain. This delightful home is ideal for those seeking character, convenience, and a central location.

Location. Once a winner of the Great British High Street award and recognised by The Sunday Times as an often-overlooked gem of Oxfordshire destined to become a thriving hub, Wantage is ideally located in the Vale of the White Horse. The town offers excellent transport links, with the A338 providing easy access to the A34, M40, M4, and rail services from Oxford, Didcot, and Swindon. A picturesque Market Town with deep historical roots dating back to the time of Alfred the Great, Wantage boasts a vibrant mix of high street and independent retailers, along with a wealth of bars, restaurants, and cafes that contribute to its thriving community atmosphere. King Alfred's Academy provides secondary education and is part of the Cambrian Learning Trust, collaborating with local primary schools, including Charlton, Wantage CofE, Stockham Primary School and Wantage Primary Academy. With easy access to the stunning surrounding countryside, including the ancient Ridgeway and White Horse Hill, Wantage offers the perfect blend of semi-urban living and rural beauty.
