Main Road, Dyffryn Cellwen, Neath, Neath Port Talbot.

Property Description

Nestled in the picturesque semi-rural setting of Dyffryn Cellwen, within the sought-after Neath Valley, this well-maintained semi-detached property offers the perfect blend of countryside tranquillity and practical family living. With stunning, uninterrupted vistas towards the Black Mountain of the Brecon Beacons at the front and idyllic mountainside views to the rear, every window provides a new perspective on the surrounding natural beauty.

Inside, the home offers three generously sized bedrooms—ideal for a growing family or those seeking flexible space for a home office or guest accommodation. The ground floor bathroom adds convenience to the thoughtfully arranged layout, while a recently installed gas boiler ensures warmth and comfort all year round. Property is well maintained throughout, ideal first time purchase.

Step outside to find a spacious, enclosed rear area—a true blank canvas for gardening enthusiasts, families, or anyone desiring space for outdoor entertaining. There's also an on-site workshop, perfect for hobbies, storage, or additional workspace.

This desirable property is ideally situated for lovers of the great outdoors, with immediate access to walking, cycling, and nature trails that wind through the breath taking landscapes of the Brecon Beacons National Park. Nearby, charming village amenities provide for daily needs, while the market towns of Neath and Swansea are within easy reach for shopping, dining, and excellent schools. Commuters benefit from convenient links to both the M4 and key local transport routes, making it an excellent base for exploring South Wales or travelling further afield.

Discover the potential of this delightful home in a serene valley setting. Arrange a viewing today to truly appreciate everything it has to offer.
