Description

This individual detached property with a large garden is situated in the popular Meon Valley village of Soberton.

The accommodation offered is deceptively spacious with three bedrooms on the first floor, a comfortable sitting room, large conservatory, study/bedroom 4 and a kitchen.

The garden is a feature and faces in a southerly direction to the rear.

The current owners have enjoyed Jamar as their family home for approximately 50 years and are moving to downsize.

The village of Soberton is in Hampshire's renowned Meon Valley with areas of the South Downs National Park being very closeby.

The property is conveniently located and the village of Wickham with its traditional and most attractive square is within a short drive. The sought after and historic country town of Bishops Waltham is also nearby with its charming, character high street which includes a range of shops and services including a choice of popular coffee shops and eateries.

The major south coast centres of Southampton, Portsmouth and Winchester are accessible by road as is access onto the M27 and M3. Mainline rail services are also available from several locations including Botley, Eastleigh, Winchester or Petersfield.

Schooling for most ages is available nearby with the secondary school for the area being in nearby Swanmore. The popular sixth form colleges for the area are either Barton Peveril or Peter Symonds and also nearby are Newtown Infant & Droxford Primary Schools.

We thoroughly recommend an early viewing as detached properties with large gardens are rarely available in this area and at this level of pricing. The property also offers great potential.
