Blackeys Lane , Neston

£399,950

A large, well-maintained garden with a wooden deck, lawn, and various plants and trees. The deck is in the foreground, featuring a round table and four chairs. The lawn is in the middle ground, and there are various plants and trees in the background. The sky is clear and blue.

An impressive, detached double fronted period property constructed around 1903. The property occupies a good-sized plot and provides very spacious accommodation.

The property has been improved with the construction of an enclosed porch area, the installation of solar panels (on a feed in tariff), the loft is insulated, the boiler was replaced around 2009, the kitchen has been overhauled and the garden has been skilfully landscaped. The property has been incredibly well-maintained and has recently had the exterior painted.

The accommodation comprises, covered entrance porch, hallway, large lounge-snug and a fantastic kitchen-dining room complete with terracotta tiled flooring a range of intertiled appliances and a log burning stove. On the first floor there are three double bedrooms and a single fourth bedroom which would make an ideal study or nursery. The main bedroom has an extensive range of fitted wardrobes. The accommodation is completed by the family bathroom which has a shower over a bath and a very large full height storage space.

Externally at the front there are double gates opening to a driveway with parking for several vehicles and there is a front lawn with border containing established rose bushes. At the rear is a landscaped garden with a raised paved patio area, composite decked area, vegetable beds, lawned area and established borders. The rear garden also has a useful outhouse with water, power and light and there is a storage room and outside W.C.
