Whistley Down

Yelverton

Exceptional detached country residence where character blends with contemporary comfort. Sympathetically renovated to an outstanding standard, the farmhouse, built circa 1819, retains much of its original charm and character, whilst offering the convenience of modern family living. There are two generous reception rooms, four double bedrooms, all boasting well appointed ensuite facilities, one being on the ground floor suiting perhaps an elderly relative. A beautifully fitted farmhouse style kitchen with integrated appliances and breakfast area, is the hub of this family home.

An impressive feature is the leisure complex, comprising a detached barn with indoor heated swimming pool, gym area and dedicated changing room with shower. Two enchanting converted traditional barns, thoughtfully presented, one with two bedrooms, a double garage and gardens, the other featuring a clock tower, one bedroom and pretty courtyard. Currently providing an established lucrative income stream, also appealing to a multi-generational family, subject to any necessary change of use planning consents. Set in an idyllic setting on the edge of Dartmoor, with private electric gated lane entrance, extensive formal gardens, large gravelled parking area and enjoying spectacular views across open countryside and toward Plymouth Sound.

Positioned right on the edge of Dartmoor, this home offers the best of both worlds. For those who love the outdoors there is direct moorland access just a short stroll away, offering superb walks, cycle routes and breath-taking scenery, yet only a short drive from the shops and amenities at Yelverton, or the historical town of Tavistock renowned for its indoor market, shops, boutiques and restaurants. For families, the location is hard to beat, with the famous Mount Kelly College private school, together with easy access to further highly regarded schools in Plymouth.
