In addition to its traditional appeal, the home benefits from modern, energy-efficient features, including solar panels that provide between 50% and 60% of the property's electricity needs. Battery storage ensures that power generated during the day can be used when it's needed most, offering both sustainability and long-term savings. New insulation and roof to the main property installed in 2023.

Step inside through a characterful glazed front door into a spacious and sunlit hallway. Here, traditional craftsmanship meets natural textures, with Ted Todd oak flooring underfoot and original stonework creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The hallway sets the tone for the rest of the home, blending authenticity with understated elegance.

At the heart of the home is a truly unique dining kitchen, crafted from reclaimed church pews and enhanced by stunning granite worktops. Decorative glass-fronted cabinets, a Bosch induction hob, extractor and integrated dishwasher complete with an inset traditional porcelain Belfast sink make this space as practical as it is beautiful. Under-slate heating runs throughout the kitchen and side porch, adding discreet comfort underfoot. This triple-aspect room is bathed in natural light and enjoys views of the surrounding greenery, making it a joy to cook and dine in. A connecting porch-ideal for muddy boots and coats-leads out to the rear yard and adds to the kitchen's functionality. The Esse oil-fired range brings both nostalgic charm and also provides heating and hot water for the home.

The generous dual-aspect living room is a cosy yet open space, with a feature wood-burning stove and patio doors leading directly to the rear yard. A snug, tucked away off the hallway, offers a peaceful retreat for reading or relaxation. The downstairs utility room provides practical space with oak worktops, a traditional porcelain belfast sink, plumbing for laundry appliances and space for an additional height fridge freezer; All designed with family life in mind.

Also on the ground floor is a large, double bedroom with built-in storage, ideal for guests or multi-generational living. Adjacent to this, the ground floor bathroom is styled in a calming, neutral palette and features oak flooring, a walk-in rainfall shower, glass screen, vanity basin, and heated towel rail – a blend of modern convenience and classic style.

An elegant staircase, carpeted with a central runner, leads to the first floor where countryside views and exposed timber beams remind you that you're in a truly special setting.

The principal bedroom is a spacious retreat with dual-aspect windows offering panoramic views of the surrounding fields and south lake district mountains. An original stone mantle adds period charm, while a double glazed door opens to a private balcony – a perfect spot for your morning coffee as you soak in the serenity of the landscape.

Two further bedrooms provide flexible family accommodation. Bedroom Two is a double room and features exposed beams, oak flooring, and built-in wardrobes, with peaceful views over the greenery. Bedroom Three, complete with a built-in single bed and storage, ideal for a child's bedroom or nursery and is lit by a roof window.

The family bathroom continues the home's traditional theme with a freestanding roll-top bath, vanity basin, W.C., bidet, heated towel rail, and tasteful part-tiled walls – a timeless space for relaxation.

Outside, the charm continues. The beautifully tended gardens wrap around the property, offering a mixture of lawned areas, mature hedging, and even a pond – previously home to the family's ducks. The front driveway is block-paved, providing ample parking, while a secure rear yard allows for additional vehicle storage or play space.

Ewebank High Barn is not just a home – it's a lifestyle. Multiple outbuildings add exceptional versatility; including a detached garage with lighting, power, and storage space, a home gym, ideal for fitness enthusiasts and a separate home office/studio, perfect for working from home or creative pursuits in peace and quiet.

This exceptional property is more than just a house – it's a way of life. From the handcrafted kitchen to the rolling countryside that surrounds it, every detail has been designed to offer comfort, beauty, and a connection to nature.

Don't miss your chance to own this enchanting countryside residence – Ewebank High Barn could be your next family home and forever lifestyle.
