DESCRIPTION

An exciting opportunity to acquire a prime building plot with full planning consent for the construction of x4 two-bedroom dwellings positioned in the desirable semi-rural location of Dymchurch.

Erection of 4 x residential dwellings with associated parking area. Planning Application 25/0447/FH subject to conditions granted following appeal April 26.

Set within a pleasant plot, adjacent to the well regarded Ship Inn, A 15th century pub. The building plot offers a fantastic balance of a convenient location, with the properties overlooking the grassed, village green. Boasting great access to sea-side & Bustling Dymchurch town. The beach is only a short 3 minute walk away from the site, as well as local shops & Dymchurch village centre by foot. Road links available to Ashford, Tenterden, and the wider Kent road network. This makes it an ideal prospect for self-builders or developers.

Planning permission REF: 25/0447/FH, allowing a developer to move forward with confidence and avoid the uncertainty and delays often associated with the planning process. This is a rare chance to create smaller, yet high-quality 2 bed homes in a sought-after location with strong resale potential. The original hall that was on site has since been demolished, which previously had all main services connected: mains gas/water & electricity.
