5 Mount Pleasant is a lovely, fully furnished four-bedroom home found a short walk away from the main University building. Each bedroom is spacious and bright with a study desk to work from and plenty of storage space. The living room is a modern communal area complete with eye catching décor, large windows that allow the sun to light up the room, two comfy sofas and two additional armchairs. The property includes both a WC and a bathroom, the latter containing a fitted shower, a toilet and a sink, all in a contemporary design. Located at the rear of the property, the kitchen is a great place to prepare and cook meals with plenty of storage and counter space, a large fridge freezer, sink and oven. Being so central 5 Mount Pleasant is in the heart of all that Bangor has to offer with many University buildings in close walking distance and both Upper and Lower Bangor's high streets offering a multitude of services.
