PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

An attractive and deceptively spacious mid-terraced period home, enjoying a pleasant position within the rural hamlet of Wall. Offering excellent kerb appeal with its attractive rendered façade, decorative period detailing, bay window and well-maintained front garden, the property provides generous accommodation ideally suited to families, first-time buyers or those looking to enjoy village life whilst remaining within easy reach of nearby amenities.

The well-proportioned accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a bright and spacious lounge with a beautiful bay window overlooking the front garden, a separate dining room ideal for family meals or entertaining, and a kitchen/breakfast room with patio doors opening onto the enclosed rear courtyard.

To the first floor are three generously sized bedrooms, all enjoying attractive rural views, together with a family bathroom. The property further benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

Outside, the front garden creates an attractive first impression with its lawn and established planting, while the enclosed rear courtyard provides a private, low-maintenance outdoor space. There is also the added benefit of an outside WC and a substantial outbuilding, ideal for storage, a workshop or hobby space.

LOCATION

Wall is a small rural hamlet set within the Cornish countryside, offering a peaceful setting while still being conveniently located for access to nearby towns. Hayle, Camborne and the historic market town of Helston are all within easy reach, providing a range of shops, schools and everyday amenities, along with transport links. The north coast is also just a short drive away, with popular beaches such as Gwithian and Godrevy known for their wide sandy stretches and scenic coastal walks. The surrounding area is well suited to those who enjoy the outdoors, with plenty of countryside, quiet lanes and footpaths to explore.

AGENTS NOTE

A mining site investigation report was undertaken in June 2026. The conclusions are as follows:-

No voids, broken ground, or evidence of shallow mine workings were encountered. Ground conditions were found to be stable and consistent with unworked natural bedrock.

Based on the information available and the findings of the intrusive investigation, the property is considered unlikely to be at risk from historic mining activity, and no further mining-related investigation is considered necessary.

A copy of the full report is available to view in our office.

SERVICES

The property is connected to Mains Water, Electricity, Gas and Drainage.

DIRECTIONS

From our office continue east out of Hayle, passing Lidl on your left hand side. At the roundabout, take the second exit signposted to Connor Downs. Continue into and through the village. As you begin the leave Connor Downs, take the turning on your right signposted to Carnhell Green. Follow this road for approximately 2 miles, going over the railway crossing, before entering Carnhell Green. At the junction, turn right and this road will lead you into Wall. The property will be found on your right hand side indicated by a Millerson For Sale board.
