This elegant period home has been thoughtfully and sympathetically improved by the current owners, beautifully blending character features with modern living. An entrance vestibule with a wooden internal door and original stained-glass side panels opens into a welcoming hallway, where stripped wooden floorboards flow seamlessly through to the kitchen and dining area. The bay-fronted sitting room is wonderfully light and airy, centered around a charming period fireplace, creating a warm and inviting space to relax. A separate dining room provides an ideal setting for entertaining and leads through to a contemporary kitchen, fitted to a high standard and featuring bi-fold doors that open directly onto the rear garden — perfectly connecting indoor and outdoor living. A convenient ground floor W.C. completes the downstairs accommodation. Upstairs, the property offers three generous double bedrooms. The principal bedroom enjoys a bay window and an attractive period fireplace, while the second bedroom benefits from a recently installed extended-width window with delightful views towards Ashton Court. A stylish and well-appointed family bathroom serves the first floor. Externally, there is a small front garden and an enclosed rear garden designed for low maintenance and enjoyment, featuring a large decked sun terrace — the perfect setting for summer barbecues and entertaining family and friends.

Perrett's Park offers a fantastic vantage point to watch the balloons take off from Ashton Court, walk the dog or just take time out with the family for a relaxing day in the sunshine. Situated just a short walk away from Wells Road, home to several popular independent shops and eateries, including Fox and West Deli, A capella Café & Pizzeria, Southside Bar and Bruhaha serving local craft beers. Redcatch Park is a 6 minute walk, a lovely community garden where you can enjoy a coffee, pizza or bite to eat.
