Vittoria Street, Birmingham, B1

Let UK Home are excited to offer this stunning two-bedroom apartment, uniquely refurbished within a preserved historic building at 36 Vittoria Street, located in Birmingham's prestigious Jewellery Quarter.

This property comprises a large bright open plan kitchen and living room, two double bedrooms with wardrobes, two bathrooms, a toilet and ample storage.

The property delivers exceptional living quality with well-curated on-site facilities. Converted from a distinguished historical building, the residence features a private courtyard, lift access and advanced smart security systems, perfectly balancing sophisticated living aesthetics with daily convenience.

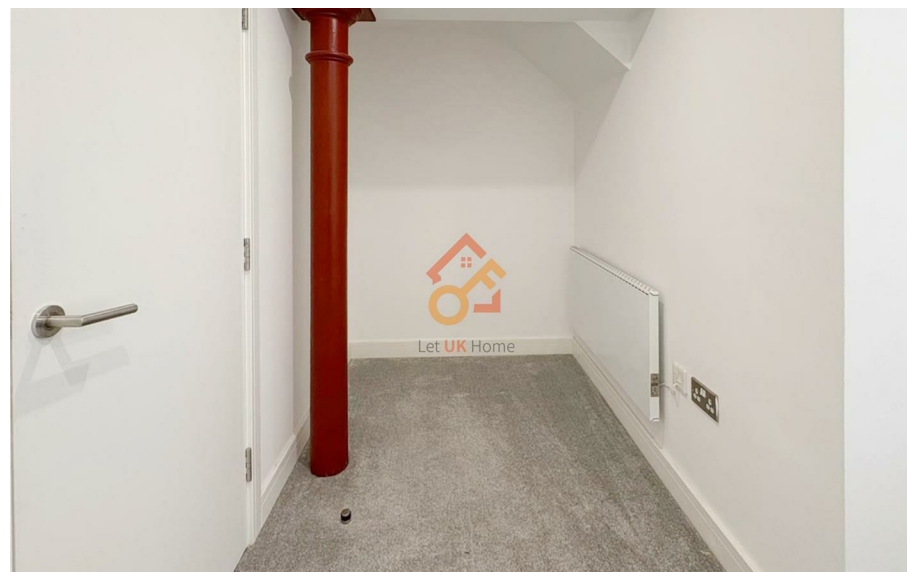

Boasting outstanding educational connectivity, the apartment offers easy access to top local universities, including the University of Birmingham, Aston University and Birmingham City University. A full range of primary and secondary schools is also situated nearby, creating a strong academic atmosphere.

Jewellery Quarter Train Station is within walking distance, providing seamless connections to Birmingham city centre, Snowhill Business District and New Street transport hub. Supported by extensive bus routes and excellent road networks, residents can effortlessly travel across the city and throughout the UK.

Nestled in the vibrant Jewellery Quarter, the neighbourhood is filled with independent designer boutiques, cosy coffee shops, exquisite restaurants and art galleries. Close to St Paul's Square and the Jewellery Museum, the area is rich in artistic and cultural appeal. Meanwhile, the bustling shopping, dining and entertainment amenities of central Birmingham are just moments away, ensuring a diverse and fulfilling urban lifestyle.
