Mitcheldean is a small town located in the Forest of Dean district of Gloucestershire, England. It is situated in the northern part of the Forest of Dean, approximately 12 miles west of the city of Gloucester.

Known for its historic charm and its location within the beautiful countryside of the Forest of Dean, the town has a rich history, and evidence of its past can be seen in the architecture of its buildings. The 13th-century church of St. Michael and All Angels is a notable landmark in Mitcheldean.

With a strong sense of community, the town has a good range of amenities to serve its residents. These include local shops, pubs, doctor's surgery, pharmacy, a primary school, the Ofsted Outstanding secondary school Dene Magna, a library, and a community centre. The town hosts various events throughout the year, including festivals and markets.
