Warren Bay Holiday Village is perfectly positioned between the historic harbour town of Watchet with its artisan quayside and interesting shops and the promenade of Blue Anchor with its sand and pebble beach both benefiting from a halt on the West Somerset Steam railway.

In addition the site benefits from its own private beach, accessed via a wooded lane ideal for fossil hunting and rock pooling. The site is also on the coastal path which is good for hikers.

The development is served by a reception office, laundry, children's play area.

Location

Situated on the outskirts of the ancient harbour town of Watchet, boasting a colourful maritime history dating back over two thousand years. Nestled between Exmoor National Park and the Quantock Hills it is hard to believe that the M5 is only half an hour away, with Bristol and its international airport easily commutable. 21st Century Watchet still holds all the charm from long ago while offering the amenities essential to modern living including; a post office, opticians, hairdressers, convenience stores and a host of quirky antique, gift and art shops as well as a popular deli, three cafes, a number of pubs, bed and breakfasts, two museums, butchers, junior school, and a doctor's surgery, the town certainly has a great deal to offer anyone wishing to make their home here. The coastline and Watchet Harbour Marina, are notable attractions of the area. For steam enthusiasts, The West Somerset Railway runs regularly throughout the year connecting Bishops Lydeard and Minehead with Watchet and all local stations on route.
