This Grade II listed terrace on Abbey Foregate offers a rare combination of period character and contemporary style in the heart of Shrewsbury. The property enjoys a vibrant and convenient location, within easy reach of independent restaurants, boutique shops, local clubs, and a miniature nature reserve, while being just a short stroll from the town centre. Full of charm and character, it features decorative fireplaces, stylish kitchen finishes, and period details throughout. Views over the iconic Abbey Church enhance the sense of heritage, while a private rear courtyard provides a versatile outdoor space for dining or relaxing. Ideal for those seeking a stylish, convenient lifestyle in one of the town's most sought-after streets, this home perfectly blends heritage, character, and everyday comfort.

The ground floor features a welcoming reception room with a decorative fireplace with alcoves either side incorporating shelving and cupboards. The Shaker-style kitchen is fitted with a Belfast sink, quartz work surfaces, and integrated Neff appliances, combining practicality with contemporary style. A rear lobby with utility connections leads to a modern ground-floor shower room, fully tiled with walk-in shower cubicle and white fittings.

Upstairs, two double bedrooms retain period character. The principal bedroom benefits from views over Abbey Church, while the second bedroom includes a decorative fireplace and a cupboard enclosing the boiler. A further staircase leads to a versatile attic room with a Velux window, ideal for storage or a home workspace.

Externally, the property is approached from Abbey Foregate with traditional railings, and the rear garden is a private, enclosed gravelled courtyard - ideal for enjoying outdoor space. Gas central heating provides comfort throughout this characterful home.
