THE GRAND TOUR

A delightful double-fronted mid-terraced house dating back to the early 1800s, situated on the sought-after Mount Pleasant. This charming property enjoys a prime location, linking Saltney and Curzon Park, and is just a short stroll from a picturesque open field offering access to scenic walks along the River Dee.

The property has been thoughtfully modernised by the current owners, including new windows, updated electrics, a contemporary kitchen and bathroom, and a full re-plastering, among other upgrades.

The accommodation briefly comprises: an inviting entrance porch, a cosy living room with a wood-burning stove set within a re-purposed Victorian tiled hearth with stone mantel, a dining room featuring a characterful fireplace, a well-appointed kitchen with access through to the useful under stairs storage cupboard. Upstairs, the landing leads to three bedrooms and a generously sized family bathroom.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a private and larger-than-average south-east facing walled courtyard garden. Lovingly landscaped for low maintenance, it features gravelled areas, raised sleeper borders, and a covered storage space, all designed to provide a secure and peaceful outdoor retreat.
