Price: £1,000,000

A generously proportioned and extended five-bedroom detached family home set within one of Loughton's most prestigious residential pockets. Offering superb internal space across two floors — including a master bedroom with en suite — the property provides an exceptional foundation for modern family living.

The home features a double garage and a private driveway, adding both convenience and kerb appeal. While well-maintained, the interiors now present scope for decorative enhancement, giving buyers the opportunity to refresh and personalise to their own style — a rare opportunity in such a prime location.

Set within the highly sought-after village of Loughton, the property is moments from Central Milton Keynes — a short walk to MK Station for fast London links, and minutes from the shopping centre, restaurants, leisure and business district.

This is a rare chance to acquire a plot with such significant potential. We invite serious enquiries to explore the possibilities this unique offering presents.
