

7 Haywards Farm Close , Verwood, BH31 6XW

Dating back to the early 1700s, this remarkable period home is believed to be one of Verwood's oldest surviving properties, offering a unique combination of historic charm, spacious accommodation and versatile living options.

Situated in a quiet and desirable location, the main house offers generous accommodation arranged over two floors, currently providing five to six bedrooms. This flexible layout is ideally suited to larger families, multi-generational living or those requiring dedicated space for home working.

The welcoming lounge features a traditional fireplace with a wood-burning stove, creating a cosy focal point that complements the property's period character. Original features can be found throughout, blending the home's rich history with practical additions for modern-day living.
