A charming, detached cottage with a generous garden set within countryside, in the highly regarded village of Gazeley. This property offers a rare opportunity with significant potential to extend the existing dwelling.

Gazeley is known for its quiet countryside, historic St Mary's Church, and agricultural surroundings. Situated near Newmarket, it offers a peaceful atmosphere with traditional homes, local farms, and scenic lanes. Its history reflects centuries of English village life, with a close-knit community and access to nearby market towns and transport links to Cambridge and Norwich.

This well-proportioned, cottage offers living space comprising a bright sitting/living room, a separate dining room, fully equipped kitchen, conservatory overlooking the garden, two bedrooms and a bathroom.

Externally, a large lawned rear garden with views over open countryside, a patio and a driveway that provides ample off road parking.

There is also a secondary, large plot behind the rear garden (available by separate negotiation) which could also be purchased as extra garden space, or explore development options, subject to obtaining the necessary planning permissions.

No upward chain.
