The Property

Dating back to 1745 and believed to be one of the oldest cottages in Kingsdown, Vince Cottage has been sympathetically and extensively renovated by the current owner over the past eight years. The thoughtful blend of contemporary design and a soft, neutral colour palette enhances the property's wealth of original character, creating a stylish yet welcoming 18th-century home. A bright and inviting reception hall, complete with a striking fireplace, sets the tone on arrival and leads into a superb open-plan sitting and dining room. This elegant dual-aspect living space flows seamlessly into the kitchen, with both areas enjoying French doors that open onto a private and secluded patio, perfect for indoor-outdoor living and entertaining. The kitchen is beautifully appointed with a sleek range of white handleless units, integrated appliances, and solid wood worktops. Upstairs, the first floor offers three charming, light-filled double bedrooms, all serviced by a modern and well-appointed family bathroom together with an additional cloakroom. This truly desirable home benefits from gas central heating and is presented in move-in-ready condition, making it an ideal family residence in the heart of this picturesque coastal village.

Outside

The cottage is set back from the road and enjoys a slightly elevated position, with a couple of steps up to the main entrance, flanked by beautifully stocked brick planters. A handsome wisteria drapes gracefully across the front elevation, adding to the property's quintessential cottage charm. A side pedestrian passageway provides convenient access from the front of the property through to the rear garden. To the rear, the cottage benefits from a surprisingly generous garden for such a central village location. Immediately outside the kitchen and dining room is a secluded patio, an ideal setting for al fresco dining or peaceful relaxation. From here, stone steps lead up to a raised cottage garden, richly planted with a wide variety of shrubs and flowers that provide colour and interest throughout the year. Pebbled pathways meander to the top of the garden, where the property is further enhanced by a beautifully appointed shepherd's hut. Fully equipped with double bed, a comprehensive kitchenette, and ensuite shower room, it offers versatile additional space perfect for guests or holiday lets.
