Every Story Starts Somewhere

At The Hollowes, your story begins with three one-of-a-kind homes, thoughtfully crafted for modern living.

This is a setting with a story of its own: just beyond the town lies the landscape that inspired A.A. Milne's Hundred Acre Wood, where Winnie-the-Pooh's adventures were born. It is a place that invites both adventure and quiet stillness, the kind of setting that always feels like home.

Each home is unique in layout and character, from expansive kitchens made for gathering to peaceful lounges and studies designed for quiet retreat. Generous bedrooms, multiple ensembles and landscaped gardens offer space to breathe, while garages or carports and clever storage make everyday living effortless.

Every detail reflects Wedgewood's commitment to craft and quality, creating homes that are practical, elegant and built to stand the test of time, the perfect setting for the next chapter of your story.

A Place to Write your Story

A private drive leads you into The Hollows, where three distinctive homes sit around a landscaped courtyard, each with its own view, garden and character.

Carefully considered gables, warm red brick and timeless detailing make the architecture feel instantly at home in this setting, while landscaped frontages and private gardens enhance the sense of seclusion.

This is a location that offers the best of both worlds: peaceful and tucked away, yet just minutes from Crowborough High Street, cafés, restaurants and local schools. Step a little further and you can explore the trails of Ashdown Forest and Crowborough Country Park, perfect for weekend walks and fresh air.

Your Next Chapter

The story begins the moment you turn into the private drive.

A landscaped entrance frames the approach to The Hollows, with soft planting, natural paving and subtle lighting creating a sense of welcome by day and by night. Each home has its own frontage, offering individuality while feeling part of a small, connected community.

Practicality is built in, with external power points and provision for electric vehicle charging. Natural sandstone patios and carefully chosen planting create an outdoor environment that becomes more characterful with every season.

² Plot specific

Stories of Crowborough

Crowborough, is the largest inland town in East Sussex. Historically a market town, it still hosts a monthly farmers' market with local artisanal products as the focus. Which one of the local restaurants to enjoy is a tricky decision to make with Chinese and Indian amongst many others on offer. Perhaps you'd rather pick up fresh fish and chips enjoying it straight from the paper. Walking out of The Hollows away from the High Street for less than half a mile will find you at The White Hart on the Green. This pub is known for its warm welcome, premium food and drink offering, as well as live music.

A walk will be needed after all that delicious food, with trails and footpaths zig-zagging all over the local area, you are spoilt for choice. Ashdown Forest neighbours Crowborough and offers a short, easy stroll from Pooh Car Park and the highly-rated Southern Slopes or Airmans Grave Circular for a more challenging hike with great views.

Crowborough Beacon Golf Club and the Crowborough Leisure Centre offer everything the fitness enthusiast could desire. If that's not enough you could have a training session at the Vision Martial Arts & Fitness Centre.

The Community Centre has regular theatre events and creative workshop opportunities as well as daily classes for all ages including Tai Chi, baby sensory and a bridge club.
