Introduction

Brazendales House is a distinctive detached home that blends traditional charm with modern functionality, set in a generous plot on a no through lane, in the village of Knowbury. Behind its characterful facade lies flexible accommodation arranged over two floors, complemented by a large loft with planning permission for conversion into two double bedrooms.

With spacious interiors, a substantial driveway, and private gardens with hot tub, the property offers an ideal balance of family living and future potential, all within easy reach of Ludlow's vibrant market town amenities.

Property Description

Ground Floor

The welcoming entrance opens into a spacious entrance hall with cloakroom, leading to two bright reception rooms, ideal for family life and entertaining. The sitting room enjoys a splendid feature fireplace with Clearview wood burning stove, and oak beams, while the second reception is versatile – equally suited as a snug, playroom, or dining room – both rooms opening directly to the garden, creating a wonderful indoor-outdoor flow.

The kitchen / breakfast room is fitted with a double ceramic sink unit, modern cabinetry, built-in appliances including dish washer and microwave oven, and space for a range cooker. This room leads to a modern fitted utility room which houses the oil-fired boiler with space for a washing machine, and access to a further room currently used as a study.

First Floor

Upstairs, the principal bedroom boasts generous proportions and en-suite facilities with a suite in white comprising bath, separate shower enclosure, pedestal wash basin and W.C. Three further bedrooms are served by a stylish family bathroom featuring a bath, separate shower enclosure, wash basin and W.C.

Loft

A particularly valuable feature of Brazendales

House is the large loft space. Currently accessed via a hatch and ladder, this generous area offers excellent storage but also holds planning consent for conversion. Once completed, this could create an additional two double bedrooms, a home office, or studio, significantly enhancing the property's living space and value. Sold with full architect plans.

Outside & Grounds

The property is approached via a wide gravel driveway offering extensive parking and space for a caravan. A detached timber garage provides additional storage, garaging, or potential for conversion (subject to planning). The gardens are designed for both relaxation and family living, with a mix of lawn, planted borders, and entertaining spaces with decking and a hot tub (available by negotiation).

Location

Knowbury is a thriving and highly regarded South Shropshire village, with a friendly community centred around its busy village hall and welcoming pub. Just a short drive from the historic market town of Ludlow - celebrated for its medieval architecture, festivals, independent shops, and outstanding restaurants - the village offers the best of rural living with everyday convenience close at hand. The surrounding countryside provides endless opportunities for walking, cycling, and outdoor pursuits, while excellent road and rail connections put Shrewsbury, Hereford, and the wider Midlands within easy reach.
